GOSPEL

Reading of the holy gospel according to saint John (1:35-42)

John was standing with two of his disciples, and as he watched Jesus walk by, he said, "Behold, the Lamb of God."

The two disciples heard what he said and followed Jesus. Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them, "What are you looking for?" They said to him, "Rabbi" – which translated means Teacher –, "where are you staying?" He said to them, "Come, and you will see." So they went and saw where Jesus was staying, and they stayed with him that day. It was about four in the afternoon. Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, was one of the two who heard John and followed Jesus. He first found his own brother Simon and told him, "We have found the Messiah" – which is translated Christ –. Then he brought him to Jesus. Jesus looked at him and said, "You are Simon the son of John; you will be called Cephas" – which is translated Peter.

LORD'S WORD

CHRIST THE KING CATHOLIC CHURCH

SECOND WEEK OF ORDINARY TIME

JANUARY 14, 2024

The gospel tells us about vocation. A kind of vocation that knows how to sacrifice and love for his brethren. In our context, loving someone propels us to know more the person's identity and so with us in our relationship with the Lord. As we get to know him our hearts are ignited by his love which burst forth to others. How do I sustain my intimacy with the Lord? What are my concrete ways?

God, our loving Father, sent the Son into the world to proclaim the Good News of Salvation to all: to sinners, the poor, oppressed, the sick, the abandoned and neglected. He gave His life on the Cross for us and rose again to new life to redeem us and reconcile us with the Father.

The Father sent the Holy Spirit to the Apostles to continue the work of the Son and to lead all to salvation. Our faith has become for us true light that shines in the darkness. Renew in us the grace of the Spirit that impels us to be witnesses of Jesus, to a world broken by greed, violence, injustice, sickness and suffering. May our faith bring us to unity as your children to care for, and love one another. May the Holy Spirit empower us to be proclaimers of the Good News to our brothers and sisters, and to all nations.

That we have the sincere desire to help others to come to faith in the Lord Jesus to share in joy and life. May the Blessed Mother, the Star of Evangelization, accompany us and pray for us as we live and share our faith with others. May our strong love and devotion to her form us to be true disciples and witnesses of Jesus to all, always ready to be sent, and to be obedient to whatever Jesus asks of us.
