GOSPEL

Reading of the Holy Gospel according to Saint Mark (13:24-32)

Jesus said to his disciples: "In those days after that tribulation the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will be falling from the sky, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. "And then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in the clouds' with great power and glory, and then he will send out the angels and gather his elect from the four winds, from the end of the earth to the end of the sky. "Learn a lesson from the fig tree. When its branch becomes tender and sprouts leaves, you know that summer is near. In the same way, when you see these things happening, know that he is near, at the gates. Amen, I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. "But of that day or hour, no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father."

REFLECTION

This gospel talks about Jesus speaking of the truths about his message and was asked about what will come in the future. Jesus looked at the fig tree and said that we will know when winter and summer is coming. Just like in our time, his presence can be sensed in different ways in our lives. It may not be helpful in the end, but it gives us awareness on how God is with us.

We know that the Son of God will return to earth to pass his final judgment on all the living and the dead. It will be the final moment of time as we know it now. The dead will rise and our bodies and souls will be reunited.

The righteous will enter Glory. Those who are in mortal sin will be condemned for eternity. The world will no longer be a fallen world. All disease and disorder in nature will be eliminated. Peace will come and perfect order will be established. God will be the universal King and will rule this new world forever.

As we celebrate this glorious mystery of our faith, we must accept and believe all that we know about it. But as we do, we must also approach it with deep humility, admitting to ourselves that we will never fully comprehend the awesomeness of that day until it comes. No earthly concept will ever come close to fully describing that moment in time, but we must adhere to our belief in it with a profound and unwavering faith.

Reflecting today, with deep faith, on this glorious and defining moment in the time to come. On that day, the only thing that will matter is how faithful you have been to God's will. Your charity will become an open book for all to see, and the rewards for your charity will remain with us forever. As we think about that day in faith, let it encourage us to do all we can today to prepare for the Last Judgment. When that day comes, it will be too late to change. Let us prepare today and tomorrow and every day of our lives so that when Jesus returns in all His glory, it will be a glorious day.
