III SUNDAY OF LENT

CHRIST THE KING
CATHOLIC CHURCH

MARCH 23, 2025
GOSPEL

Reading of the Holy Gospel according to Saint John (4:5-15, 19b-26, 39a, 40-42)

Jesus came to a town of Samaria called Sychar, near the plot of land that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. Jacob's well was there. Jesus, tired from his journey, sat down there at the well. It was about noon.

A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink." His disciples had gone into the town to buy food. The Samaritan woman said to him, "How can you, a Jew, ask me, a Samaritan woman, for a drink?" —For Jews use nothing in common with Samaritans.— Jesus answered and said to her, "If you knew the gift of God and who is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him and he would have given you living water." The woman said to him, "Sir, you do not even have a bucket and the cistern is deep; where then can you get this living water? Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us this cistern and drank from it himself with his children and his flocks?" Jesus answered and said to her, "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again; but whoever drinks the water I shall give will never thirst; the water I shall give will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life." The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I may not be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water. "I can see that you are a prophet. Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain; but you people say that the place to worship is in Jerusalem." Jesus said to her, "Believe me, woman, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. You people worship what you do not understand; we worship what we understand, because salvation is from the Jews. But the hour is coming, and is now here, when true worshipers will worship the Father in Spirit and truth; and indeed the Father seeks such people to worship him. God is Spirit, and those who worship him must worship in Spirit and truth." The woman said to him, "I know that the Messiah is coming, the one called the Christ; when he comes, he will tell us everything." Jesus said to her, "I am he, the one who is speaking with you."

Many of the Samaritans of that town began to believe in him. When the Samaritans came to him, they invited him to stay with them; and he stayed there two days. Many more began to believe in him because of his word, and they said to the woman, "We no longer believe because of your word; for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is truly the savior of the world."

REFLECTION

The story of the anonymous Samaritan woman at the well, recounted only in the Gospel of John, is revelatory and filled with truths and powerful lessons for us today. The story of the woman at the well follows the account of Jesus' conversation with Nicodemus, a Pharisee and important member of the Jewish Sanhedrin.

Jesus' conversation with a solitary Samaritan woman who had come to draw water at a well. This was an extraordinary woman. She was a Samaritan, a race utterly despised by the Jews as they had no right to their God, and she was an outcast and despised by her own people. This is evidenced by the fact that she came alone to draw water from the community well when, during biblical times, drawing water and chatting at the well was the high point of a woman's social life. Yet this woman was ostracized and branded as immoral, an unmarried woman living openly with the sixth of a series of men.

The story of the woman at the well teaches us that God loves us despite our ruined lives. God values us enough to seek us openly, to welcome us in intimacy, and to rejoice in our worship. As a result of her conversation with Jesus, only a person like the Samaritan woman, an outcast from her own people, could understand what this means. To feel loved, to be cared for when no one, not even herself, could see anything of value in her: this is grace.

However, there are many other valuable truths that emerge from this story. We will learn that: Only through Jesus the Messiah can we obtain and receive eternal life. The fact that Jesus ministers to the outcasts of Jewish society (the Samaritans) reveals that all people are valuable to God and that Jesus desires us to show love to all... even our enemies. Those who worship God do so in spirit and in truth. Our witness about Jesus is a powerful tool to lead others to believe in Him.

Likewise, this text leads us to understand that salvation only comes to those who recognize their desperate need for the spiritual life they lack and cling to Jesus. Living water can only be obtained by those who recognize their spiritual thirst.
